Tautphaus Park Zoological Society participates in Idaho Gives Day

Funds raised will go toward remodeling the otter habitat

Idaho Falls, Idaho, April 30th, 2013. The Tautphaus Park Zoological Society is participating in the first ever Idaho Gives Day on May 2nd, 2013. From midnight to 11:59 p.m. on May 2nd, Tautphaus Park Zoo supporters in Idaho and across the nation can come together to support the Tautphaus Park Zoological Society as it raises money to help fund the remodel of the Zoo's otter habitat. Their goal is to raise $5,000.00.

"This is the first time the Tautphaus Park Zoological Society has participated in something like this and we're all very excited to see how it goes," said Beth Rich, Zoo Superintendent. "As they are the Zoo's non-profit support organization, we succeed when they succeed."

About Idaho Falls:

Situated along the Snake River at the western edge of the world famous Rocky Mountains, Idaho Falls has all the features of big city living, but still embraces a small town charm. Our skyline consists of the majestic Teton Mountain Range, and in our backyard is the world's most famous park - Yellowstone.

As the regional center for healthcare, shopping, and entertainment, Idaho Falls is attractive to small and large businesses alike and consistently finds itself listed in the top ten rankings of many prestigious magazines, newspapers and professional community research publications.

About Tautphaus Park Zoo:

The Tautphaus Park Zoo, founded in 1935, is dedicated to preserving wildlife and educating and entertaining Zoo guests. Located in Tautphaus Park off South Blvd, the Zoo is home to over 400 animals of 100 plus different species exhibited in a variety of naturalistic displays. For more information, visit the Zoo online at www.idahofallszoo.org.
